Zero to 100 at blasting-fast speed

A quick charge, and you're back in action—that's the power of Akiitu Magnetic series' cable. Choose between 60W and 240W, and say goodbye to battery anxiety.¹ Charge in a flash, connect with ease, and keep your day running at full speed, nothing can slow you down.

No interruptions, no lags, just fun moments within reach

Juice up your life with your new series. Whether it's your favorite music, videos, or massive files, this cable makes it effortless to transfer at an incredible 480Mbps speed. Just picture a 1GB movie streaming into your device in a mere 24 seconds²—smoother and faster than ever before.

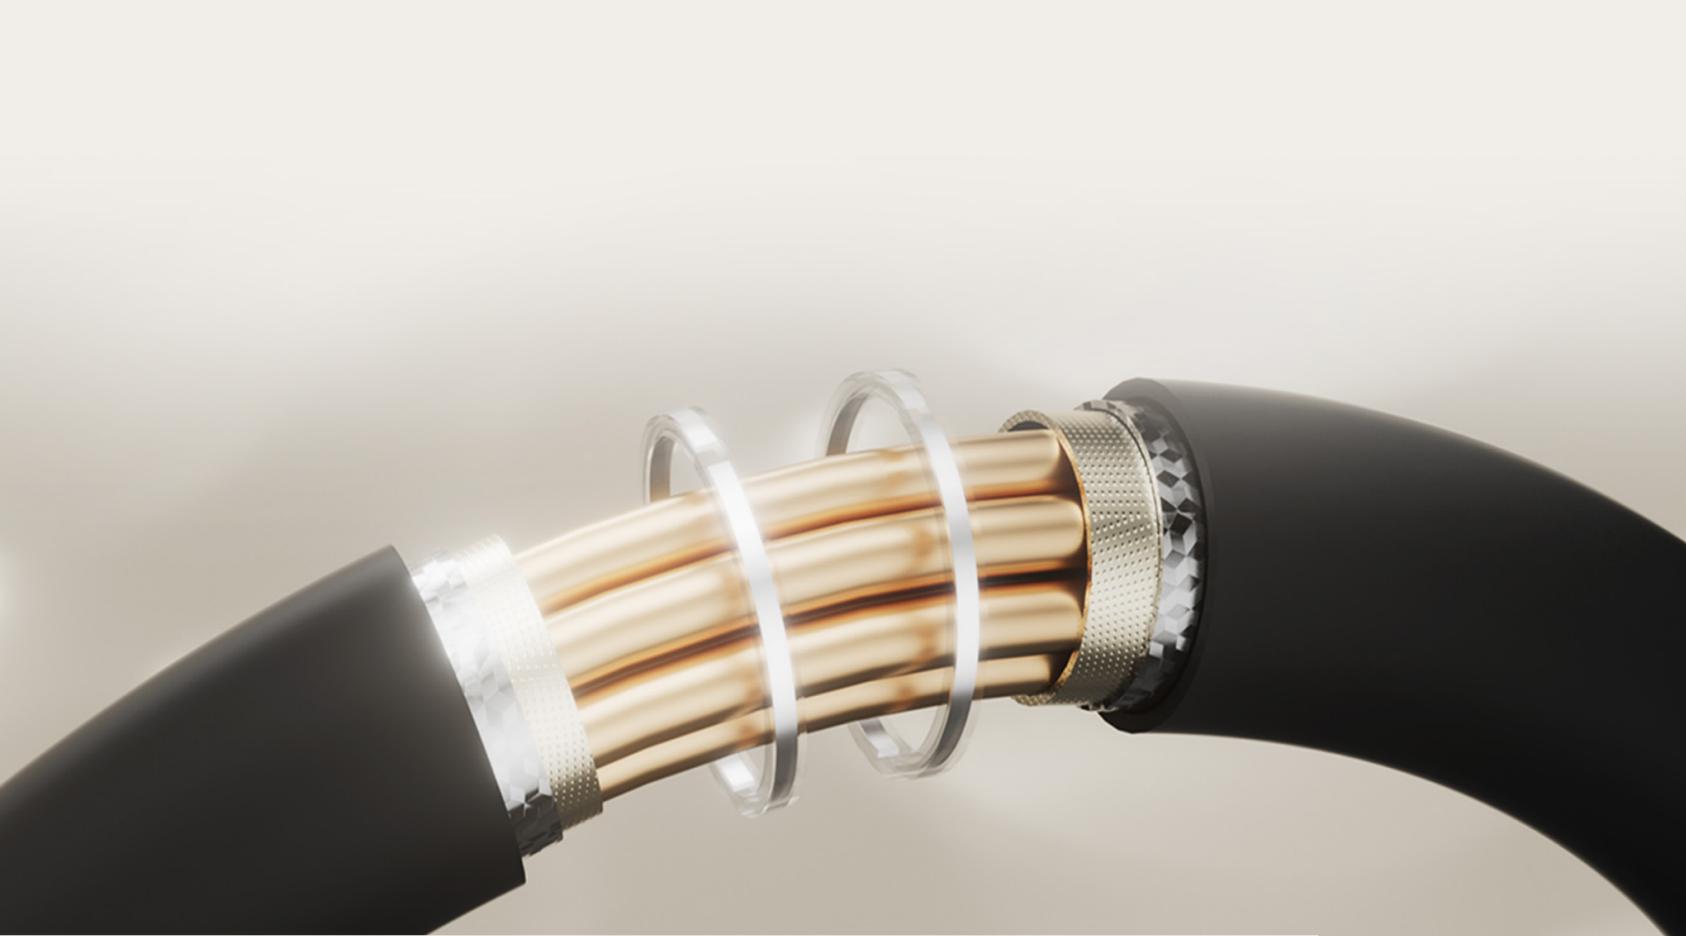

Soft to the touch like never before

Made from skin-friendly, non-toxic silicone, the Magnetic cable feels as smooth as it sounds. Its supple texture bends effortlessly around your hand or bag, preventing kinks and tangles that ordinary cables cannot match.

Built to handle the toughest twists without breaking a sweat

Crafted for the bold, built for the long haul, this resilient core has withstood over 28,000 bend cycles—proving it's not just ready for today, but for whatever tomorrow throws its way.³ Whether it's bending, folding, or plugging in, the series stays strong and unyielding.

Power through layers of protection

Experience a whole new level of quality and sophistication in every strand. With a cutting-edge multi-layer design, the series shield the inner components while offering a soft, stain-resistant finish that looks as good as it performs.

Solid and reliable, even through the harshest moment

Built to stay beautiful inside and out, the Magnetic Series uses an anodized aluminum connector that won't rust or wear out easily. It's durable, dependable, and always ready wherever you are.
